One of the weirdest things I have ever seen in Israel was in Netanya. These signs are pointing the way to a synagogue within an area that really didn't look like it would have a synagogue in! The signs look like they are showing the way to some theatrical experience or even something less wholesome. But I guess it does suggest a house of prayer that isn't formal or stuffy and is open to everyone, like in the verse from Isaiah.

Thoroughly Modern Moses

ISBN: 978-0-9810947-4-8

Marc Michaels © 2009

Joseph Rosenberg, not so eminent Jewish scientist and time-traveller came to Earth with a bump and was surprised, nay shocked, to learn that he had landed on one of the most famous people in the history of history itself ... Moses the Lawgiver. Ordered to replace Moses by the Lord God Almighty, Supreme Being of the Universe and all round Nice-Guy, Mr. Rosenberg embarks on an adventure of biblical proportions. Will he survive? Will there be tea and cake? A science-fiction biblical comedy. Hitch-hikers meets the Bible - enjoy! (Contains over 300 pages of laughter).

Megillat HaY'shuah The Salvation Scroll of the Yemenite Jews

ISBN: PENDING
Marc Michaels © 2009

.. and God put into Shalom's mouth a cunning answer ...

At the bidding of the Nazis, the Mufti of Jerusalem arrives in Yemen to convince the king to destroy all of the Jews there.

Rabbi Shalom the Jew sits at the side of the king and awaits a miracle. The Megillat HaY'shuah - the Salvation Scroll of the Yemenite Jews tells a parable of the dangers of the time to the Jewish population of Yemen echoing the dangers faced in Persia at the time of Esther and Mordechai. This translation and commentary brings to life a little-known text.

The East London Synagogue - Outpost of Another World

ISBN: 978-0-9810947-3-1

Marc Michaels © 2008

The East London Synagogue, Stepney Green, began life as a 'deficit synagogue' against the stated policies of the United Synagogue, who until that time, had only operated on the basis of supporting those communities who would be self financing. Described by the Revd. Joseph Stern as 'a rallying point in this locality' what was the intended role for this 'outpost of another world'? Did it succeed? A short history of the early days of the East London Synagogue, Rectory Square, and an examination of how it came to be established in 1877. With rare photos of the interior of the building taken before its closure. Expanded edition with many more photos. (58 pages).
